

Sensory Scavenger Hunt

Lots of people choose to stay inside more when Winter arrives, but there are so many amazing things to see and feel! Go on a Winter adventure, and use your senses. Put a tick in the box when you've completed the action!

Smell the bark of a tree

Look for animal tracks in the mud

Feel the cool wind on your face

Hear the squelch of mud

Smell the fresh Winter air

See a rainbow of leaves

Hear the birds singing

Taste the rain on your tongue

Draw something else you see

Feel the soft moss on a tree

Look for a rain-covered spider's web
